4 ~~person, such disqualification shall~~An individual may petition a state agency, board,
5 commission, department, or other licensing entity at any time for a determination of 6 whether the individual's criminal record will disqualify the individual from obtaining 7 state licensure.

8 4. A petition must include the individual's criminal record or authorize the state agency,
9 board, commission, department, or other licensing entity to obtain the individual's 10 criminal record. The petition may include, and the state agency, board, commission, 11 department, or other licensing entity may consider:

- 12 a. Completion of the criminal sentence.
- 13 b. A certificate of rehabilitation or good conduct.
- 14 c. Completion or active participation in drug or alcohol treatment.
- 15 d. Testimonials and recommendations, including a progress report from the 16 individual's probation or parole officer.
- 17 e. Evidence of sufficient rehabilitation under subsection 2.
- 18 f. Training.
- 19 g. Employment history.
- 20 h. Employment aspirations.
- 21 i. Personal information, including the age of the individual at the time the offense
22 was committed and the individual's current family responsibilities.

23 5. A state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity may not 24 consider:

- 25 a. Nonconviction information, including information related to a deferred
26 adjudication, participation in a diversion program, or an arrest not followed by a
27 conviction;
- 28 b. A conviction that has been sealed, dismissed, expunged, or pardoned;

- 9 (2) A sex-related offense, including a felony sexual offense under chapter 10 12.1-20.
- 11 6. The state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity may not 12 find an individual's criminal record disqualifies the individual from state licensure
13 unless the state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity
14 determines the state's interest in protecting public safety is superior to the individual's 15 fundamental right to pursue a lawful occupation and the agency, board, commission,
16 department, or other licensing entity establishes by clear and convincing evidence:
- 17 a. The individual was convicted of a felony or violent misdemeanor, except as 18 otherwise provided in this section, which is directly, substantially, and adversely 19 related to the state's interest in protecting public safety; and
- 20 b. The granting of state licensure will put the individual in a position in which the 21 individual is more likely than not to reoffend and cause harm.
- 22 7. The state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity shall issue
23 a decision within ninety days after a petition is submitted. The decision must be in 24 writing and shall~~must~~ specifically state the evidence presented and the reasons for 25 disqualification~~findings of fact and conclusions of law and may advise the individual of~~ 26 actions the individual may take to remedy the disqualification. An individual who is 27 disqualified may submit a revised petition reflecting completion of the remedial actions
28 before a deadline to be set by the state agency, board, commission, department, or 29 other licensing entity in an alternative advisory decision. A copy of such~~disqualification~~
30 shall~~the decision must be sent to the applicant by certified mail.~~

- 1 4-8. An ambiguity in an occupational regulation relating to the use of an individual's
2 criminal record must be resolved in favor of the individual. A state agency, board,
3 commission, department, or other licensing entity may not use an undefined term in an 4 occupational regulation relating to the individual's moral character, including a crime of 5 moral turpitude or character and fitness to disqualify an individual from state licensure.
- 6 9. An individual may submit a new petition to a state agency, board, commission,
7 department, or other licensing entity at least one year after a final judgment on the 8 initial petition.
- 9 10. A state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity may rescind
10 a favorable decision at any time if the individual is convicted of an additional offense.
- 11 11. A state agency, board, commission, department, or other licensing entity may charge a 12 filing fee of no more than one hundred dollars for the processing of each petition.
- 13 12. A person desiring to appeal from a final decision by any state agency, board, 14 commission, or department shall follow the procedure provided by the chapter of this
15 code regulating the specific occupation, trade, or profession. If no appeal or review 16 procedure is provided by such chapter, an appeal may be taken in accordance with 17 chapter 28-32, except for attorneys disbarred or suspended under chapter 27-14.
- 18 13. The department of commerce shall create an annual reporting requirement to be 19 compiled and published on the department's website. The information must include:
- 20 a. The number of applicants petitioning each state agency, board, commission, or 21 other licensing entity;
- 22 b. The number of approvals and denials by each state agency, board, commission,
23 or other licensing entity;
- 24 c. The type of offenses for which each state agency, board, commission, or other 25 licensing entity approved or denied the petitions; and
- 26 d. Any other data the department of commerce deems necessary.
- 27 14. This section may not be construed to require a private certification organization to 28 grant or deny a private certification to an individual.
